INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Attorney H. P. Mathewson was in Santa Rosa last Monday on legal business.

Frank A. Riser left for Guinda on Wednesday morning's Southern Pacific train.

Sam Chase was a passenger on the S. P. train Saturday en route to San Francisco.

Louis Peterson, our local lumber merchant, was a visitor to Santa Rosa Wednesday.

James Baines, after spending several weeks in Oregon, has returned to his home here.

J. Vincent and daughter, Miss Camille, spent Wednesday and Thursday in the metropolis.

Leo Baines is negotiating the sale of two automobiles to well-known San Francisco traveling men.

Richard McGill has gone to Kern City, where he has accepted a position in the Southern Pacific shops in that place.

Larry Larsen, a contractor from San Francisco, was in town Sunday shaking hands with his old El Verano friends.

Chas. Dal Poggetto, the well-known City Trustee of Sonoma, passed through here Monday forenoon en route to Santa Rosa.

A. D. Graham and family of Boyes Springs were passengers on the Southern Pacific train Sunday morning en route to the metropolis.

Mrs. J. K. Bigelow, accompanied by Miss Kenyon, left here for Los Angeles last Saturday morning, where they are visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Farrell, proprietor of "The Oaks," near Boyes Springs, left for San Mateo Wednesday morning, where she will remain several weeks looking after her property interests in that city.

Mayor M. E. Cummings of Sonoma took the train here Tuesday morning for Santa Barbara, where he has been attending the annual convention of the League of California Municipalities all week.

A. Nevrnbaum has contracted with E. E. Harris of this place for the building of a large hotel at Agua Caliente on the Heidelberg saloon premises. The building will be an up-to-date structure and a big improvement for Agua Caliente.

Ernie Givens, mixologist and head clerk at El Verano Villa, was sight-seeing in San Francisco the fore part of the week. He reports having had a most strenuous time and is glad to be back home again.

Capt. H. P. Fillgate of San Francisco is registered at the Bellevue Hotel this week. The Captain is an employee of the U. S. Mint and has a host of friends here who are glad to see him in our midst again.

Harry Bains, Jack Mathews, Leo and Thos. Baines returned to their homes here Friday morning from a trip to Marysville and other Central California cities. The party traveled over a thousand miles, covering the ground in the former's large touring car without mishap. They report a fine trip and say the roads they passed over were in excellent shape for automobile travel. Chauffeur Harry Baines was at the wheel.

A large number of friends and acquaintances gathered at the Block residence last Saturday evening and accorded the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Coutts (nee Block), a reception. Games were played and a jolly time was had by all who had the good fortune to be present at this pleasant gathering. During the evening Pop Block entertained the company with a number of clever tricks and several vocal selections. At midnight the guests sat down to a sumptuous spread, after which there was dancing, which was kept up until the wee sma' hours. The company then wended its way homeward after voting Pop Block a clever entertainer and some show man, too.

Novel Violation of the Law—A Good Prohibitionist Leader

C. Guidi of Kenwood has been convicted and fined $250 for selling liquor without a license. His method of evading the liquor license was a novel one. He had arranged a pipe line from his house to the banks of a near-by creek and when a customer paid for a bottle of beer or whiskey Guidi would drop the goods into the pipe line, which would be received by the customer at the other end of the line. The offender would make a good leader for the Prohibitionists.

PROMINENT WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Mrs. Frank Leppo of Santa Rosa Ends Life by Inhaling Fumes of Gas.

Mrs. Frank Leppo, (nee Belle Spottwood) startled Santa Rosa by committing suicide last Saturday afternoon at her home in that city.

Mrs. Leppo was a little over thirty years of age, and was married to Frank Leppo in that city a number of years ago. Her father resides in Potter Valley, Mendocino county. Thomas H. Spottwood is her brother, and the family connection is a very large one in this county and section of the state. Mrs. Leppo was the favorite granddaughter of Thomas Hopper, the well-known pioneer and former President of the Santa Bank. She was fond of him, too, and on many occasions Mr. Hopper has been heard to speak very affectionately of her and of the attention she showed him from time to time. He gave her considerable property years ago, and at different times as a token of his regard. Mr. Hopper was sitting in his buggy down town at the time the shocking news of his granddaughter's death was first told. Fearing that the shock might be too much for the old gentleman to bear John L. Walker got into the buggy with him and suggested that as it was getting cold he would ride home with him. Mr. Hopper feels the death very acutely.

The Santa Rosa Press Democrat gives the following account of the suicide:

"Santa Rosa was profoundly shocked on Saturday afternoon by the tragic death of Mrs. Minerva Belle Leppo, wife of O. Frank Leppo, a well known real estate broker. Mrs. Leppo committed suicide at the family residence at Fourth street and McDonald avenue by inhaling gas. Her lifeless body was found on a lounge in the kitchen, the head resting in close proximity to the gas cooking range, from the four open burners of which the deadly fumes were still pouring.

"She met death alone. After pushing the lounge into the kitchen from its accustomed place in the hall, Mrs. Leppo closed the doors and windows, turned on the gas, and then lay down with a book in her hand to await the end. On the shelf of the stove, indicating that when unconsciousness came on it had dropped from her grasp, the book—"The Winning of Barbara Worth"—was found, open at page 236. She had been loaned the volume by her friend, Mrs. C. A. Wright, on Thursday afternoon.

Medical aid was immediately summoned, all the human agencies known to medical science were used, but to no avail. There was no response to the infusion of oxygen in the hope it might recuscitate the heart action."

GRAND BALL HERE THANKSGIVING EVE.

It Will be Given by Sonoma Valley Council, No. 45, Y. M. I. in Union Hall.

Sonoma Valley Council, No. 45, Young Men's Institute, will give its thirtieth annual ball in Union Hall on Thanksgiving eve. This will be pleasant news to our party going people who have attended these annual dances of the Y. M. I. in the past. Splendid music has been engaged for the occasion and the committee having the affair in hand will without a doubt make it the social event of the season.

Woman's Club Members—Attention!

You are cordially invited by the Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons to be present at the unveiling of the Mission bell at the corner of Broadway and the Napa-Petaluma road, one mile south of town, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29th, at 2 o'clock.

OF INTEREST TO OUR NEW VOTERS

Notes in Regard to the Civic Obligations Which They Are Now to Assume on an Equality With the Ex-Lords and Masters

"Have you registered?" is now the question of the hour in every part of the state. Now that women are on equal political terms with the male voters of the state, they are assuming their responsibilities with seriousness and gratification. In Los Angeles, where it will be possible for the women to vote at the city election which is to be held on December 5th, registration deputies in large numbers have been appointed and their work has become so heavy that more are of necessity being appointed daily. Many of the suffragists have opened their homes for registration, which gives women who cannot come into town, ample opportunity to take the last step in becoming members of the body politic.

Many organizations in Southern California which were of a purely social nature before the recent election, have become civic associations in which members are to be instructed on the administration of public affairs. One in Hollywood and one in Venice were started as soon as the election returns were in and others are preparing to make just such a change in their clubs. If there have been doubts as to the interest women would show in government if they secured the ballot, they have been dissipated by the hundreds upon hundreds of women who have not only already registered, but who have become interested in a technical study of the political situation at home and abroad.

The anti-suffragists in all parts of the state are doing what anti-suffragists have always done wherever a suffrage victory has been won, registering, which proves that once the fight is over, every American woman takes up her responsibilities with the cheerful spirit, regardless of her attitude when the campaign was on. There is talk among the anti-suffragists, of attempting to reverse the decision of the people on the suffrage amendment. If such an attempt is made, however, it will be voted upon by women as well as men, and it is very doubtful if any California woman will be willing to give up her status as an American citizen after it has been so lately won. It is still more doubtful that the anti-suffragists, once they themselves have become a part of the body politic, will have any desire to instigate such a fight.

The suffrage victory has established many new conclusions as to the comparative strength of the city and country vote. When the suffrage workers and their supporters thought, on October 11th, that the election had been lost, the country districts had not been heard from. San Francisco's anti-vote seemed impossible to overcome, and even state politicians conceded that there was no hope. Then on Wednesday night, the returns from the clean and wholesome agricultural districts began coming in with their majorities in favor of enfranchising women. And finally, it was those self-same districts with their incessant influx of majorities that gave the women of the state the political equality for which they had worked since San Francisco defeated the measure sixteen years ago when the vote she cast meant victory or defeat. However, from this time on the country no longer has to suffer from the vote cast by the northern city, but may easily swing San Francisco into the line of clean politics by its own vote.

ALLEGED BUNCO MEN ARRESTED.

Taken Into Custody at Broco's Resort by Sheriff Jack Smith Last Monday Night.

Sheriff Jack Smith made what is believed to be an important arrest Monday night at Broco's resort between this place and Glen Ellen. Two men, appeared at the resort a few days previous to their arrest supposed to be Louis Gorio and Baptiste Salussoglia, alias John Vardin, accused of buncoing a farmer in Riverside county, named J. Farrario, out of $4,000 cash, were taken into custody and landed in the county jail at Santa Rosa. In its account of the arrest the Santa Rosa Press Democrat furnishes the following additional particulars:

"The men appeared to be very much surprised when the officers pounced upon them. Other people were surprised, too, for they had made themselves very agreeable during the few days they had been stopping at the resort, and no one suspected them of wrong doing. They wore good clothes and had plenty of ready cash. More fine linen they carried in neat suit cases. After they came to jail they denied any knowledge of the alleged buncoing, and evidenced utter ignorance of such a thing as robbing honest farmers. They gave other names, too.

"The arrest was made on a tip received from Chief of Police Vollmer of Berkeley, who stated that they were believed to be at the place near Glen Ellen, as Gorio had mailed a letter to him there. Sure enough when the officers were gathering up the effects after the arrest, Gorio grabbed an envelope on the table with his handcuffed hands and tore it up. Sheriff Smith picked up the fragments and the name "Louis Gorio" was clearly made out. From one of the men Sheriff Smith took $530 in cash.

The men under arrest are charged with buncoing Farmer J. Farrario of Riverside county, California out of $4,000 of his good hard cash. They are also wanted at Seattle for buncoing a man out of $6,000. Their scheme, which cost Farrario $4,000, was rather moulty in the line of bunco games. It is known as the "tin box change." On June 1, last the two men alleged to be these two, called upon Farrario and bargained with him for the purchase of his ranch for $5,000. That was a good price, and Farrario fell easy. The strangers proposed to their victim that they and he deposit $4,000 in a tin box just to bind the deal and it was agreed if they did not return next day with other "thou" to make up the purchase price, or if he went back on his agreement to sell, the $8,000 should pass into the possession of the man who remained by the agreement.

Finally they handed the tin box to Farrario and told him to put it away for safe keeping until next day in the Citizen's Bank at Arlington. Farrario did so. Next day the men did not return and Farrario went to the bank, eager to grasp the $8,000. He got the box and opened it, and found 300 iron washers and a brick.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity--The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Miss Ruth Poppe of San Francisco spent Sunday with Sonoma relatives.

Revenue officer Sievers was here from Cloverdale the fore part of the week.

Misses Nancy and Zolita Bates went down to the metropolis Saturday morning.

George Gies was here from the metropolis Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Green.

Will Fouts returned to his home in the metropolis Sunday afternoon after a two-days visit with relatives here.

J. C. Pohley, the U. S. Internal Revenue officer for this district, made an official visit to this city Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cheney and infant were here from San Francisco Sunday visiting their Sonoma relatives.

Miss Emilie Poppe, who is attending the University in Berkeley, spent Saturday and Sunday last visiting her folks here.

Austin Keogh, the well-known lumber merchant of San Francisco, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. E. J. Keogh at the Granice home Sunday.

Mrs. P. N. Stofen and Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Duhring leave this afternoon to attend the Pacific Coast Convention of Episcopal Churches now in session in Sacramento.

Mr. A. E. Tower, Miss Elsie Garrett and friends who have been taking in the sights of all the principal cities in Europe the past six months, write us that they will return to Sonoma in January.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Bulotti, after an absence of six months visiting the scenes in and around their childhood's home in Switzerland, have returned to their home in this place. They report having had a fine vacation and they look it.

Blanche M. Stetson, a retired actress, who had made her home in this city and vicinity the past five years, died at the Bellevue Hotel, El Verano, last Monday. Little is known of the deceased, who sought refuge here immediately after the destruction of San Francisco by fire in 1906. She was born in Mt. Clemens, Michigan, and was aged 51 years. The remains were laid to rest in the little Catholic churchyard in this city.

Miss Eileen Cowen was down from Bennett Valley several days this week the guest of relatives.

Miss Pearl Engledow of Oakland has been visiting at the Goess home on Spain street this week.

Mrs. Sarah J. Burris, pleading that she is depending upon her relatives for support, appeared in Judge Seawell's department of the Superior Court of San Francisco, Tuesday, and applied for temporary alimony and attorney's fees pending the proceedings brought against her by Henry C. Burris to have their marriage annulled on the ground of coercion, claiming he was forced into the marriage under threats of violence made by the brothers of the defendant and one George Joseph. Judge Seawell postponed the matter until next Tuesday.

Good Roads Meeting at Agua Caliente.

The good roads meeting held Monday in the Flowery District school house, Agua Caliente, was well attended by representative citizens. The meeting was called to order by Fred T. Duhring, who stated the object of the meeting, after which a free discussion took place in which Supervisor Blair Hart, F. L. Cottle, A. D. Graham, E. Steiger and others took part. There seemed to be an earnest desire on the part of those present to have our roads put in better shape, but the puzzle seemed to be the ways and means of going about it. However, Mr. Duhring appointed the following committee to tackle the problem and to report at a meeting to be held in the City Hall in this place this afternoon: Dr. Parramore, J. M. Allison, Dr. A. M. Thomson, F. L. Cottle, Wm. J. Kearney, J. K. Bigelow, W. F. Clewe and H. F. Bates.

This committee, if it is sincere in its desire for improving our roads, will invite the cooperation of the Board of Supervisors as well as our farmers and business men, to the end that our roads be put in better shape before the winter rains set in.

Appointed School Trustee

A. D. Graham, the well-known merchant and Postmaster at Boyes Springs, has been appointed a School Trustee of the Flowery District School by County Superintendent of Schools Miss Florence Barnes, vice J. Bethune, resigned.

A Violator of the School Law Canned.

The right of school supply dealer E. C. Stewart of Stockton to buy text books from the state has been declared forfeited by the Superintendent of Public Instruction at Sacramento.

Complaint came from Mono county that Stewart was demanding a higher price for books than that fixed by law. In the remote mountain counties where there are few local dealers the pupils must often order by mail. Investigation showed that Stewart has been active in soliciting mail orders in such localities, charging the full postpaid price to pupils, with an extra postage added for good measure. By this means he was charging the pupils postage twice, to the increase of his profits.

But this is a clear violation of the law, which is intended to make sure that all children, wherever they may live, shall get their text books at a low and uniform price fixed according to law. Further than this, it is a violation of the affidavit sworn to by every dealer before he can purchase books from the state. The law prescribes that violation of this affidavit shall result in the revocation of the dealer's right to buy books from the state. This is the action taken by Superintendent Hyatt in Stewart's case. Stewart is well known as a large dealer in school supplies who sent agents among the schools of Central and Northern California.

The Woman's Political League of California has been founded under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Moore of the State Suffrage Association. It will organize the State by precincts for the purpose of educating and creating an interest in politics among women. It has been announced that the organization will take no action against saloons or liquor traffic, but that through education it was hoped to discourage intemperance.

Governor Hiram Johnson has fixed the date for a special session of the Legislature. It will convene on Friday, December 1st, and it will be limited to two or three weeks. The Governor has not as yet given out the subjects to be considered, but they will have much to do with the amendments carried at the recent election.

SUPERIOR COURT CALENDAR DAY.

Judges Seawell and Denny Preside in Their Respective Departments Monday

The calendar day proceedings in the Superior Court on Monday were of an interesting nature and among the matters disposed of by both Denny and Seawell were the following:

Judge Seawell's Court
H. W. Haskett was admitted to probation on a charge of check forgery.
In the case of the state against T. J. Cavanaugh, the demurrer was sustained and the court ordered the filing of a new information avoiding the error alleged.
L. V. Van Pelt, charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, was arraigned and his plea set for next Monday.

These matters were continued; Golden Eagle Milling Company vs. Halleck; Sonoma Valley Light & Power Company vs. Kate O'Brien et al; Weber vs. Bremle; Smith vs. Parsons, to October 30. Pettis vs. Mossetti, to January 16.

The divorce suit of Frelson vs. Frelson came to trial and after the examination of several witnesses, including Mrs. Frelson, Mrs. Clarence Young and G. R. Brown, the Court took it under advisement.

An application for alimony and costs was presented in the suit of Cassagness vs. Cassagness.
The suit of Glen vs. Peters was dismissed.

The suit of Batchelor vs. Elphick was set for November 6.
Judge Denny's Court.

A sale of realty was ordered in the estate of C. M. Perini.
Auguste Francke and K. A. H. Thiede were named executors of the will of the late Auguste Fetz.
The matter of the estate of Matthew Scanlon was continued to October 30.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

VINEBURG NEWS ITEMS

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way all About the Week's Happenings in and About His Section of the Valley.

E. E. Griffith transacted business in San Francisco last Saturday.

Henry Hyde was a visitor on the Hyde tract Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Batto and daughter Emily visited San Francisco on Saturday and returned the same evening.

Miss Mary Batto returned to the metropolis Friday morning after a pleasant visit with her parents in this place.

John Batto, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Batto and Emilio enjoyed an auto trip to Napa last Sunday on a visit to friends.

Mrs. John Duncan, Mrs. John Roberts and Miss Hazel Roberts were visitors at the Hyde home-stead several days last week.

Quite a number of guests are registered at Vineyard Villa and all speak in praise of mine host Louis Rouquie and his assistants.

Mrs. H. Hunter of "The Knoll" enjoyed a motor trip last week and was the guest of friends in Marin, San Francisco and Alameda counties.

Our popular station agent Grover Rubke enjoyed a visit to the bay city Saturday last, and Wm. Werner of Sonoma acted as agent during his absence.

Sunday last was certainly a "larger day" in this burg, as the number of visitors exceeded that of any previous Sunday for some time, and everything was quiet and sociable.

Joseph Keecher, superintendent of the Jones ranch, accompanied by John Steiner of Sonoma, visited this place Sunday in the former's auto. Both gentlemen have many friends here.

August Rouquie Sr. is erecting a handsome cottage on the Napa road, but now known as "Villa Avenue," and it is certainly a credit to Vineburg. M. J. Pierce is the contractor and builder.

Happy Harry Andrieux, the Marshal of Wingo, and Peter Bosch Jr., the Adonis of Vineburg, paid a short visit to Jim Small last Sunday. Jim says the gentlemen had a very pleasant time. Come again.

Quite a pleasant time was had at the Embarcadero Hotel last Saturday evening when a large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Meyers were entertained at a sumptuous wedding supper. Music was furnished by a San Francisco orchestra. Did the guests enjoy themselves? Well just leave that to Ben and his estimable young bride.

No, Fred Batto was not very busy this week. On Monday he made his regular business trip to the metropolis, on Tuesday to Santa Rosa and on Wednesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Vineburg, transacted business in Petaluma. Since then we have to guess where he goes next.

Vineburg Oct. 27, 1911
Minnie Madden—Dear Miss: Please inform the Rosebuds of the Five o'clock Tea Club that I am not ready to express my opinions on the late election, as my life is not insured yet.

Yours (nit) Easy Jim.

Vineburg, Oct. 26, 1911.
Easy Jim—Of course I promised you some items last week, but what is a person going to do when all one hears around this place is hunting and fishing talk. Well, here goes, anyhow.

Quail are plentiful in this section if you can find them.

We hear that a young master mechanic of this place has again joined the social set, and we believe it from what we observed at the mask ball in Glen Ellen last Saturday evening. "Oh, Joe, the boat is going over!"

Three gentlemen decided to go hunting and started from this burg at 9:30 p. m. The party consisted of Peter Bosch Jr., the young orchardist, Louis Rouquie and Henry Pape, the jovial mixologist of Pleasant Villa. All claim they bagged the limit. Truth, thou art indeed a jewel but one would have a hard time to discover it in that bunch.

Two society men hid themselves to the hills Sunday in quest of game. They told no one what kind of game they were after, but I guess "quails." One of the valiant hunters represented Vineburg's 400 and the other the swell set of El Varano. Accidents will happen. That is what the two dogs thought when they found a hunting coat on the road Monday morning containing six quail, two bluejays and two yellow-hammers.

I saw a happy group of children playing in the Huichica school yard the other day which caused me to mentally ejaculate, "Only to be a child again," and among them was

One pretty little girl, With pretty little curls, And eyes like diamonds bright; Who loves to go to school, And learn the "golden rule," And studies her lessons every night.

Easy Jim, who is that little girl? Yours truly,

Ethel Eastlake.

Mission Bell Unveiling

On Sunday, October 29, Sonoma will be favored with a visit from the grand officers of N. S. G. W. of California, who are coming here for the purpose of unveiling and dedicating the Mission bell guide post, now being set up by Sonoma Parlor on lower Broadway just opposite the familiar "Red Tank." The grand officers will also during the day be shown the many historical places and old landmarks throughout our valley, particularly the Mission, in whose restoration they are greatly interested.

This Mission bell is one of many now designating "El Camino Real, the King's Highway," over which the Mission padres in days past, traveled on their way from Mission to Mission in the faithful performance of their religious duties.

The work of erecting these bells has been carried on very energetically by quite a number of Native Sons' Parlor, and also by other organizations, in the southern section of our state, so that the traveler there has little difficulty in locating the old Missions that are of such great historical interest to the people of our state.

A few have been erected along the northern portion of "El Camino Real," the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club having erected the one standing in front of Sonoma's Mission.

Those organizations interested in this work until every important of the "King's Highway," from San Diego on the south to Sonoma on the north there will be seen a Mission bell guide-post directing the traveler on his way and reminding him of that period in California's history when the faithful Franciscan fathers gave their best energies toward the enlightenment and advancement of our native Californians.

The unveiling ceremonies will take place at the Red Tank, at 2 p. m. next Sunday afternoon, October 29. F. T. Duhring will be president of the occasion. There will be an address by Past Grand President Byington of San Francisco, and Mrs. L. V. Empanan will delight her auditors with one of her favorite songs. Father Comerford will offer the prayer. The public is cordially invited to be present.

A Card of Thanks

To the Sonoma Valley Band, Tony Parente and the friends who so kindly contributed to the benefit given in our behalf on October 7th, we wish to express our sincere thanks.

Brief Mention.

Miss Rayner of San Francisco is visiting town friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Granfield and Miss Madelyn Granfield are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Muldry.

On Wednesday evening Nov. 1st at the Congregational church, in connection with the regular meeting of the Board of Directors, a social, musical and literary program will be held. All members of the church and friends are invited to be present. Refreshments will be served free of charge. Everybody welcome.

REDUCTION IN INSURANCE RATES.

Sonoma City Water Works Co. to Give Sonoma an Improved Fire-Fighting System Which Will Reduce Insurance Rates

As will be seen elsewhere in these columns the Sonoma City Water Works Co. (the Gen. Vallejo system) is about to install a fire fighting system of water works similar to the one in Napa City, and which will meet with all the requirements of the Board of Underwriters of the Pacific Coast.

This will be good news to the property owners of Sonoma, whose rates of insurance in many cases are almost prohibitive. The new system will, without a doubt, reduce insurance rates in Sonoma from 10 to 15 per cent.

In taking this move for the betterment of the fire protection facilities of the town the Sonoma City Water Works Co. is asking no assistance from our citizens in the way of a rebate on the amount of insurance money saved to them by the installation of its new system. It is a business proposition pure and simple, which the people of Sonoma are bound to appreciate when the system is in working order and insurance rates are lowered.

Broke Arm For Third Time.

Gordon, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ladlee of Vineburg, fell off a bicycle Wednesday afternoon and broke his left forearm. Dr. Leix set the broken bones and the youngster is now carrying his arm in a sling. This is the third time the same arm has been broken, the first time being about two years ago and the second time less than three months ago.

Yellow Jackets Reorganize.

The regular meeting of the Yellow Jacket Cadets was held last Monday evening at the Congregational church. It was decided to re-organize the club so the following new officers were elected by secret ballot: Captain, Mrs. E. K. Roberts; First Lieutenant, Majorie Buchanan; Second Lieutenant, George Andrews; Treasurer, Henrietta Weber; Secretary, Ramona Granice; Sergeant at Arms, Miss Alice Burg.

Woman's Club Notes.

Last Friday afternoon the Women's Club had the pleasure of listening to an address by the President of the San Francisco District, Mrs. A. P. Black, on general Federation work and the coming Biennial Convention of the National Federation to be held in San Francisco next June. At that time 3000 women from all parts of the United States will spend 10 days earnestly considering the many phases of public improvements in which women are now so actively engaged, all of these improvements being along lines which vitally affect the lives and well being of women and still more especially of children.

The music for the afternoon consisted of some charming songs by Miss Kelly and Miss Waterman. Tea was served, and later a short session was held for the transaction of necessary business. Mrs. Appleton was appointed delegate to the coming district meeting in San Mento, with Mrs. Burlingame as alternate.

The next meeting of the Club will be held November 3d, when the purchase of a lot will be chief topic of discussion.

"The Model Wife."

This clever comedy is to be handsomely staged at Union Hall next Friday evening, for the benefit of St. Barbara's Guild, by a group of our townpeople many of whom have never yet appeared before Sonoma footlights. The scene is laid in the luxurious studio of a handsome young artist, and the love story—or stories—that are worked out are highly amusing.

The cast is as follows:
Mr. Arthur Everett, Mr. Walter Bundschu; Mr. Robert Parks, Mr. Ralph Hotz; Mr. John H. Potts, Dr. J. F. Bateman; Miss MacPherson, Miss Irine Robinson; Mrs. Munford-Wells, Mrs. James McElney; Miss Elinor Perry, Mrs. J. A. Kinsella; Miss Bella Potts, Miss Marie Chew; Willy, Mrs. Pauline McMullen; Patsy, Miss Ida Waterman; Mary, Mrs. S. H. Haven; stage director, Mr. G. J. K. Bigelow.

Several choice musical numbers will be given by the K. J. B. orchestra, which will also play for the dancing that is to last the rest of the evening. Various booths will sell useful and fancy articles, ice cream, candy, coffee and preserves, while the boys' "Country Store" will be the feature.

Admission 50 cents.

Bed room set, two single, enameled iron beds complete, two cheffioners, folding bed, black walnut wardrobe and odd pieces of furniture.

ANCIENT JOKES.

Some That Have Amused the World For Thousands of Years.

Age cannot wither some stories, and the oldest joke on record is related in one of the Berlin papyri of the sixth Egyptian dynasty (about 3200 B. C.), and it should not be overlooked that in the days when the world was young a tale enjoyed centuries of verbal currency before it was inscribed in permanent form.

According to the papyrus, a certain scribe who worked for the temple of Thoth occupied apartments where his neighbors on either side were a coppersmith and a carpenter, respectively. These honest artisans were exemplary specimens of industry, and kept up such a row all day and most of the night that the poor scribe was almost driven mad. At last, by a stroke of craftiness, he buttonholed each neighbor separately and bribed them to change their lodgings, which they did—with one another. This tale has kept the world amused for 5,000 years—we often meet with it now—and it never seems to have occurred to anybody to wonder why the scribe did not change his own lodgings; but perhaps his rent was in such arrears, as sometimes happens to other literary gentlemen, that it was cheaper to bribe the two workmen.

Another perennial that runs the above hard for first place in point of age is that of the man who goes to buy some weighty article and carries it on his shoulder to save tiring the horse he is riding. This story in the comic papers of today is usually tacked on to an unfortunate Irishman or old dame from the country.

Coming to classic times, the most celebrated hardy annual which took its rise then now usually appears in this guise: A man went into a cookshop for dinner, but was kept waiting so long while the owner dished it up that the perfume of the meat took his appetite away—it was long before the invention of tinned beef, by the bye—and he purposed to leave without buying anything. The proprietor, however, thought he ought to pay for the price of a square meal, and the question was referred to the village idiot, who happened along just then. He decreed that as the one disputant had been satisfied with the smell of the food the other should be paid by listening to the chinking of some coins in a plate.—T. P.'s London Weekly.

Counting Their Drinks.

In the city of London in the time of King John a special officer was appointed by the corporation to see that every vintner had hanging outside his shop an iron vessel with pegs marking the different quantities sold. And pegs were used for convivial purposes, for the peg marked the amount of liquor which each of the party was to drink, and the unlucky or greedy wight who did not "drink to pegs" was fined a penny or sometimes "pegs all round." In some parts of the country, principally the midlands and the north, a rough and ready reckoning of the number of drinks indulged in during a drinking bout is made by unbuttoning the waistcoat, each button undone representing a drink, the most glorious toppers being those who can unbutton and button up and go home sober.—London Chronicle.

Mitigating Circumstances.

"Are you aware of any mitigating circumstances in your case?" asked a magistrate of a negro convicted of stealing a coat.
"Yes, sah, lots of 'em. Ef I had time, jedge, I could talk to you for a week on dat subject."
"If you know of any mitigating circumstance, please state it."
"Yes, sah; I'll tell you ob one right now, sah. How easy would it have been for me to bring my family inter disgrace and misery, sah. I jess remained single. I neebber married, sah. Anudder mitigatin' circumstances am"—
"Officer, remove the prisoner."

Chemical Effects of Lightning.
Lightning works chemically. It has the power of developing a peculiar odor which has been variously compared to that of phosphorus, nitrous gas and most frequently burning sulphur. Wafen mentions a storm on the isthmus of Darien which diffused such a sulphurous stench through the atmosphere that he and his marauding companions could scarcely breathe, particularly when they plunged into the wood.—Chambers' Journal.

Fair Warning.

Mr. Haruutt—I admit, sir, that my life has not been what it should be, but I truly and unselfishly love your daughter, and if ever I give her a moment's pain I hope I'll be made to suffer torture for it.
Old Gentleman (warningly)—Oh, you will! You don't know her.
